Why Haven't Lovers Been Told About This Valentine Gift Before?

Málaga, Spain – 04 February, 2009 – As a Valentine's gift, what is more valuable than a diamond; more prestigious than a Porsche; more romantic than a Caribbean candle-lit dinner cruise; longer lasting than a weekend in Paris or Florence ...

...And yet only costs £25?

Forget champagne. Forget roses or chocolates – they're passé... get the love of your life a luxury home in the sun instead.

In Andy and Beverly Rockliffe's "just launched" competition, you – or your Valentine – could be the lucky winner of a spacious, four bedroom, front line golf home in Andalucía, Spain.

Beverly explained, "Competition entry tickets are just £25. This makes for a very affordable and a truly unique Valentine's gift. The winner will receive our beautiful house and... we'll also cover all the legal fees and taxes. We'll even throw in two return UK air fares, so the winner can come to collect the keys."

Andy added, "Most people dream of being mortgage-free. Living a slower, stress-free lifestyle is high on the list too. Top it off with warm sun and year-round blue skies and we know we're offering something very special. If you were to buy your Valentine an entry ticket or two, you could be set for life."

Overlooking the fairways of the picturesque Lauro golf course - just outside the modern town of Alhaurín de la Torre – this well-equipped Andalucían home has mountain views, countryside walks and is just a short drive from shops and beaches. On site there are two restaurants, two bars, tennis, bowling, two pools, petanque, a nearby equestrian centre and a driving range plus 27 holes of golf.

Living and working in Spain is easy for EU nationals but the winner could also sell the property and pocket the cash or derive a rental income from visiting holiday makers and golfers. Getting there and back is easy, too... Málaga airport is just 20 minutes away with direct flights from the UK and Europe. UK flight time is approximately two and a half to three hours.

If tickets sales don't reach the target, a cash prize will be awarded. This will be the funds collected less the cost of marketing, administration and legal fees.

Editors Notes

The Rockliffes have decided to dispose of their property via a competition as it should prove to be a cost-effective and relatively speedy way to release the equity tied up in their home, in order to invest it in a new business venture.

The house is a luxury townhouse built three years ago at Lauro Golf, Alhaurín de la Torre, Málaga, in southern Spain. The property has four double bedrooms and two bathrooms, one with Jacuzzi bath.

The ground floor has a bright and airy lounge/dining area, a cherry wood kitchen with all appliances included and a cloakroom. The basement floor has a large store room, additional storage space and private underground parking.

Other features include wireless internet access, satellite TV, heating/air conditioning system, under floor heating in the bathrooms, marble floors, etc.

There are terraces back and front on both the ground and upper floors. Views to the front are of the Guadalhorce Valley. The south facing rear of the property directly overlooks the golf course (front line) with the Sierra de Mijas mountains as a beautiful backdrop. Lauro Golf is located almost at the midpoint between the towns of Alhaurín de la Torre and Alhaurín el Grande: less than a 10 minute drive to either.

Within easy reach are the towns and beaches of Marbella (35 mins), Fuengirola (25 mins), Benalmádena (25 mins), Carihuela (20 mins) and Mijas old town (15 mins). The city of Málaga is around 30 minutes drive away.

The property is ideal as a family holiday home or for permanent relocation. For those with rental income generation in mind there are plenty of visiting golfers and holiday makers who come to the area every year.
